Carolina Improv Company presents ...

Whose Beach Is It Anyway?!

An improv comedy that brings together Myrtle Beach locals and tourists!

In this audience-interactive improv comedy show, we'll take suggestions from the audience about the funny things that pertain to Myrtle Beach, like all-you-can-eat buffets, beach stores, snow birds gone wild, tourist traps, 17 bypass vs. 17 business, Aynor (it just sounds funny), foreign exchange students on bicycles, time share sales people bike rallies (helmet or no helmet)... you get the idea. We'll use those suggestions and create instant comedy ... it's like adding water to a chia pet! If you've never experienced improv comedy, think of the tv show "Whose Line Is It Anyway?" where the performers make it up without a script! This show is appropriate for all ages. Bring your four-year-old child or your 74-year-old grandmother. Both will laugh!
 Tickets: $10 for Adults, $8 for Children (11 and under).
